Understanding Direct Deposit

- ☐ Direct deposit of net pay is mandatory and a condition of employment for employees hired on or after July 1, 1997.
- ☐ If you have direct deposit of net pay, all payments including those for temporary assignments and reimbursements, will be direct deposited.
- ☐ Optional deposits are not available for 'temporary hourly' employees.
- ☐ If you have elected either of the optional deposits, these deposits will be deducted from all regular payments and any 'Summer Fund' payments. They will not be deducted from payments for temporary assignments.
- ☐ You must provide accurate and legible bank information; any inaccuracies may result in a failed direct deposit and a delay in your pay. To ensure that your pay is deposited on time, have your bank verify the routing and account numbers.
- ☐ If direct deposit is to a checking account, a deposit slip cannot be substituted for a voided check because deposit slips may not have all the bank routing information needed for direct deposit.
- ☐ If you decide to use an account such as a money market account from a brokerage or mutual fund company, you should contact the company and request their bank/transit/ABA routing number and your individual account number.
- ☐ You may receive checks for one or two pay periods at home after submitting this form. You should not, however, receive checks for more than two pay periods.
- ☐ Your pay advice or pay stub portion of your check provides detailed information about your pay, deductions, leave balances and direct deposits.
- ☐ Your net pay and other direct deposit distributions will be deposited on payday. Your net pay may vary from one pay period to the next depending on changes in your pay, deductions, tax rates, hours worked, etc.
- ☐ You should check with your bank each pay period to ensure that the direct deposit was made prior to making financial transactions that are dependent on those funds.
- ☐ It is recommended that you check your direct deposit information if you change your employment status (for example, return to FCPS after an extended absence), as your direct deposit information may be invalid.
- ☒ If you have questions about how to complete the form or about the direct deposit program, please contact the HR Client Service Center at (571) 423-3000.
- ☐ Return form by pony or by U.S. Mail to:
